GEORGIA BASEBALL ON THE INTERNET/RADIO

Fans wishing to follow all the action of the 2021 University of Georgia baseball team can tune in to The Georgia Bulldog Sports Network and online at georgiadogs.com. The Georgia Gameday LIVE Mobile app (georgiadogs.com/wireless/) is another option.

As part of the Georgia Bulldog Sports Network from Learfield IMG College, Georgia baseball games will be heard locally on WRFC 960 AM or WGAU 1340 AM. WRFC 960 will serve as the primary home for all broadcasts. WRFC 960 is also the flagship station for Lady Bulldog Basketball. In the event there is a timing conflict between women's basketball and baseball, women's basketball will air on 960 AM The Ref and baseball will air on WGAU 1340 AM.

The veteran Bulldog team of Jeff Dantzler and David Johnston will serve as announcers on the broadcasts. All games will be produced through the Learfield IMG College in Winston Salem, N.C. Fan can listen to every game free online through georgiadogs.com. Also, Georgia baseball home games not selected for cable television will have live streaming video available on georgiadogs.com.

CREDENTIALS AND PARKING: All requests for working press, radio, television or photographer passes should be made to Christopher Lakos, Sports Communications as soon as possible prior to game day. The capacity of the press box will be limited in 2021 due to the ongoing pandemic. For more information, call: (706) 542-1621; E-Mail: clakos@sports.uga.edu.

Credentials may be picked up at the Will Call Window at the front gate of Foley Field. With ample parking available in the commuter lot and parking deck behind left field, no parking passes are issued.

INTERVIEWS AND PRACTICE: Please contact Christopher Lakos in the Sports Communications office (706) 542-1621 for interview requests. Georgia players and coaches will be available after selected practices and each game via Zoom following a brief cooling off period. Field access will not be available during the 2021 season.

PRESS BOX SERVICES/WIRELESS INTERNET: NCAA box scores, rosters and media guides will be available to working media digitally. For wireless internet login info, please see a member of the SID staff.

STILL AND TV PHOTOGRAPHERS: Accredited pool photographers will be allowed to shoot in the designated camera wells by first and third base pending the ongoing pandemic. The areas in front of the dugout, inside the dugout and around home plate are off limits.

TELEPHONES: Telephones in the press box for the working media are available If you need a phone line installed, please contact AT&T online at www.att.com or call 1-800-288-2020 or 1-877-253-0009. When ordering lines, the street address which should be given is Foley Field, 1 Rutherford Street, Athens, Ga., 30603. For repair and technical support, call 1-877-737-2478.

TELEVISION: A television booth is located in the press box and camera platforms for home plate, high first base, low first base, low third base and centerfield positions are in place.

TOBACCO POLICY: In keeping with UGA policy, the entire seating area and press box of Foley Field has been designated as a tobacco-free area.

VISITING RADIO: A courtesy phone line and Internet access are provided from the press box booth marked "Visiting Radio."

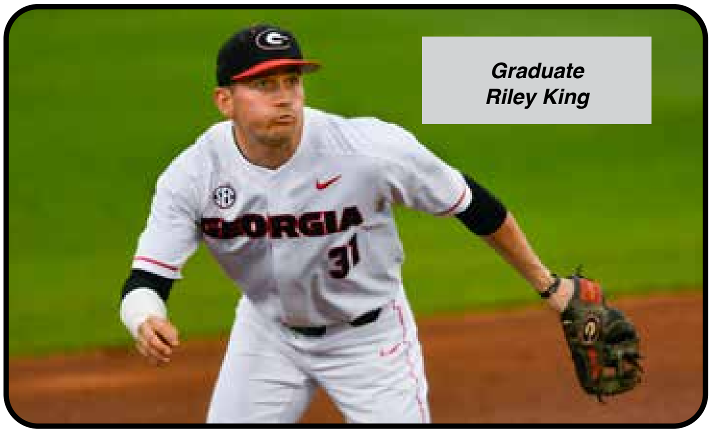
Ready To Play Ball Again



Graduate Riley King

When the 2021 season finally arrives, Ike Cousins head baseball coach Scott Stricklin will have Georgia among the nation's elite teams vying for a championship. The COVID-19 pandemic canceled the 2020 season after only 18 games. The Southeastern Conference (SEC) portion of the schedule was about to begin, and the Bulldogs were ranked as high as No. 2 nationally. Twenty lettermen are back for Georgia.

Georgia and Vanderbilt own the best combined SEC record the past two full seasons, going 39-21 in league play. Every team in 2021 will feature a loaded roster after Major League Baseball trimmed its 2020 draft to five rounds (down from 40) and no student-athlete lost a year of eligibility, both decisions that were tied to the ongoing pandemic.

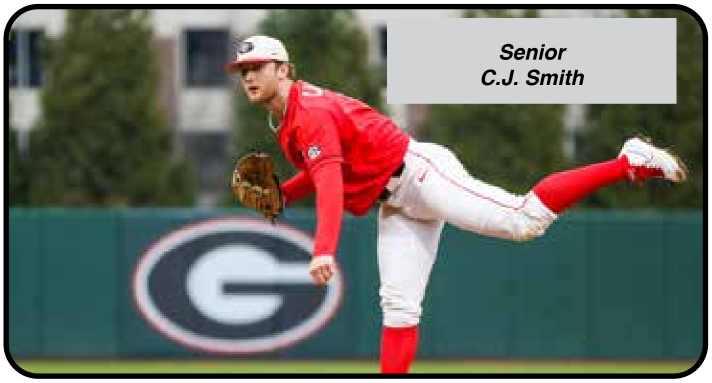
Georgia's roster for 2021 will feature 44 players. There are 28 veterans and 16 newcomers that will welcome the news when it's time to play baseball as the 2021 schedule has not been finalized. Conferences around the country are deciding how many games to play and when to start as it all relates to COVID-19. Meanwhile, the Bulldogs used their fall to practice and scrimmage to answer who will comprise the starting lineup, the rotation, roles in the bullpen while developing depth around the diamond.

Pitchers

Senior left-handers Ryan Webb and C.J. Smith along with sophomore right-hander Jonathan Cannon emerged as the cornerstones of the rotation. Webb's start in 2020 was dominating, going 2-0 with a 1.38 ERA and one save as the closer. In 15 innings, he tallied 26 strikeouts and only five walks. Smith (0-1, 3.32 ERA) made four starts last year while Cannon (3-0, 0.00 ERA) did not allow a run in five relief outings. Webb and Cannon have been named 2021 preseason All-Americans.

"Our strength will be our starting pitching even though we lost a pair of frontline guys in Emerson Hancock, who was picked in the first round, and Cole Wilcox, who earned a first round signing bonus as a third-round selection," said Stricklin. "Ryan, C.J. and Jonathan match up with anybody in the country plus we have a lot of young arms that will be given opportunities to make an impact."

Right-handers Garrett Brown and Will Childers hoped to be in the starting mix, however both will miss the upcoming season due to injuries. As a result, freshmen Luke Wagner, Jaden Woods and Patrick Holloman are candidates to start. The veteran bullpen pieces include Logan Moody, Darryn Pasqua, Jack Gowen, Michael Polk and sophomore transfer Nolan Crisp. Additionally, freshmen Hank Bearden, Collin Caldwell, Max DeJong, Charlie Goldstein, Bryce Melear, Will Pearson, Brandon Smith and Liam Sullivan aim to impress when their opportunity arises.



Senior C.J. Smith

The Bulldogs have a few two-way players that look to contribute on the mound in Ben Harris, Shane Marshall and Chaney Rogers. Harris and Rogers will see time in the outfield while Marshall is part of a loaded platoon behind the plate who made his debut on the mound this past fall.

Catchers

Mason Meadows, who has earned a degree in sport management, plus Marshall, are the veterans who are joined by freshmen Corey Collins and Fernando Gonzalez. The coaching staff took a long look at Collins and Gonzalez during the fall and came away impressed with their skills.

"Our deepest position on the team might be at catcher where any of four guys could start," said Stricklin. "Mason and Shane have the experience. Corey is the leading candidate to be the designated hitter, and Fernando has a lot of natural leadership traits and is very mature for a freshmen. This a competition to watch."

Infielders

Georgia has been one of the nation's best fielding teams of late, and two big reasons why were the steady play of Gold Glove-winning shortstop Cam Shepherd and first baseman Patrick Sullivan. However, both graduated in 2020. The Bulldogs now turn to veteran Cole Tate at shortstop, and the competition at first consists of Rogers and a pair of freshmen in Parks Harber and Lane Watkins. Tate enjoyed a fast start at the plate in 17 games last year (.339 BA, 2 HR, 14 RBI) and his glove work this fall cemented his spot in the 2021 lineup.

There are plenty of candidates at second base including Buddy Floyd, Kameron Guidry plus Josh McAllister and Caleb Ketchup both showed in the fall they are capable of playing shortstop or second base. Junior Garrett Blaylock is back at third base and looks to provide punch in the middle of the order. He is the leading returning home run hitter with four.

"We have quite a battle going at second base, and that's probably the biggest question mark heading into the season. There's several candidates to start Opening Day."

Outfielders

Veteran Riley King is comfortable playing anywhere on the diamond, and he will will begin the year in left field. Ben Anderson, who led the Bulldogs with a .414 batting average and 24 runs scored last year, returns to man centerfield and the top spot in the order. There's no shortage of Bulldogs vying for the right field spot. Connor Tate headlines the group that will include Josh Stinson, Garrett Spikes and Trippe Moore III. Veteran Randon Jernigan and freshmen Dwight Allen and Luke Wagner are adept no matter where they are in the outfield. Georgia must replace OF/LHP Tucker Bradley who graduated in 2020. He was having an All-America-type season last year, batting .397 with six home runs and 23 RBI when the season came to a halt.

"We have a ton of experience in the outfield, and I like that we have several guys who can play all three spots," said Stricklin. "That give us the flexibility to move guys around during a game."

Summary

After a heartbreaking end to the 2020 season, a tough summer without baseball and then something close to a normal fall, the Bulldogs are ready to play this spring. One thing is certain. Who ends up in the starting nine and on the mound each game will be very competitive.

"Look at Riley, Cole, Connor and Mason, those guys didn't play right away," said Stricklin. "They waited their turn and used it to their benefit and became better players. That's what we've stressed to the younger guys. We talk about it openly because everybody wants to play but not everybody can. It's going to be a challenge. You can choose to be a good teammate. You have to be ready to play and ready to cheer for who is in the lineup. We have a lot of guys that have been through it."

2020 season limited to 18 games and then canceled in March due to COVID-19 pandemic.*

Now in his eighth year at the helm, Ike Cousins Head Baseball Coach Scott Stricklin has returned the Bulldogs to one of the top programs in the country. Georgia was one of just two schools to have earned a top eight National Seed for the NCAA Championships in both 2018 and 2019. Georgia was a No. 8 seed in 2018 and a No. 4 seed in 2019, which marked the best in school history. Then in 2020, the Bulldogs were poised to have a special year, selling out its season tickets, when the COVID-19 pandemic hit.

Georgia finished 2020 ranked as high as No. 2 nationally (USA Today Sports Top 25). The Bulldogs had jumped out to a 7-0 start, swept rival Georgia Tech for the third time in the past four years and tallied a 14-4 mark when the season was canceled. Four Bulldogs signed professional contracts including first round pick Emerson Hancock (sixth overall) and a school record 26 Bulldogs earned a spot on the SEC Academic Honor Roll. Georgia was the only SEC program to rceive NCAA APR recognition, 10 Bulldogs earned a degree, and the program posted a record 3.14 GPA for the spring. Hancock was just the fourth student-athlete in school history to be both a first round draft pick and first team Academic All-American.

Since arriving at UGA, Stricklin, 48, has created an atmosphere of excitement around the program, starting with the current student-athletes, extending to former lettermen and to Georgia baseball fans around the state. He has organized numerous lettermen functions to help reunite former players and steered the $12 million Foley Field Revival project that was completed prior to the 2015 season. He has engaged the fan base with the annual First Pitch banquets featuring Hall of Famers John Smoltz, Phil Niekro and Chipper Jones, former Atlanta Braves standout Jeff Francoeur along with Bulldog legends and Major Leaguers Gordon Beckham and Kyle Farmer. A total of more than 83,000 fans packed Foley Field during the 2019 campaign, the most since 2009 when a modern era record of more than 93,000 cheered on the Bulldogs.

The Bulldogs posted one of their best regular seasons in school history in 2019, going 42-14 including a school record 21-9 in the Southeastern Conference. Then, Georgia advanced to the semifinals of the SEC Tournament and played host to another NCAA Regional as a top eight National Seed. This was the first time in school history that Georgia served as an NCAA host site as a National Seed in back-to-back seasons. Also, it was only the third time for the program to make back-to-back NCAA Regionals. Georgia finished the 2019 season with a 46-17 record, and the win total was the fourth most in school history while the 42 victories during the regular season was the second most. For the second straight year, the Bulldogs established a school record for Fielding Percentage (.980).

Junior third baseman/closer Aaron Schunk was named the 2019 John Olerud Award recipient as the nation's top two-way player by the College Baseball Foundation while junior Cam Shepherd received a Gold Glove for his play at shortstop from ABCA/Rawlings. Schunk and Hancock were consensus All-America selections. Eight Bulldogs were selected in the 2019 Major League Baseball Draft with six opting to turn professional and another signing a free agent contract. Georgia continued to excel in the classroom with 19 earning a spot on the SEC Academic Honor Roll and pitcher Tim Elliott making the Academic All-District team.

Georgia's recruiting classes have improved under Stricklin, according to Perfect Game USA national rankings. In fact, the class that made its debut in 2017 was ranked No. 3 nationally. Also, the Bulldogs have excelled in the classroom including posting a 3.08 GPA for the fall semester of 2016 and a record 23 Bulldogs landing on the 2018 SEC Academic Honor Roll.

The 2018 campaign saw Georgia return to prominence, earning a top eight national seed and playing host to an NCAA Regional for the first time in a decade. After being picked to finish fifth in the Eastern Division, Georgia posted an overall record of 39-21 and its 18-12 SEC mark tied for the second best in the league. The Bulldogs would reach the finals of the NCAA Athens Regional and set four school records (.979 fielding percentage, holding opponents to a .236 batting average, 532 strikeouts by the pitching staff and seven grand slams by the offense). Three Bulldogs earned All-America honors, four made the All-SEC squad, 23 made the SEC Academic Honor Roll and three were selected in the 2018 MLB Draft. In 2017, the Bulldogs advanced to the SEC Tournament after claiming series over then No. 4 Kentucky and No. 6 Miss. State.

Stricklin helped organize the first game open to the public at SunTrust Park to benefit Children's Healthcare of Atlanta as the Bulldogs faced Missouri. The crowd of 33,025 at SunTrust was the second biggest in college baseball history. A month later, Georgia returned to SunTrust for the 15th annual Spring Baseball Classic For Kids and defeated Georgia Tech in front of nearly 24,000 to sweep the season series for the first time since 1984.

In 2016, Georgia endured a school-record 22-game stretch against ranked opponents as it concluded the regular season with the nation's toughest rated schedule. They posted key series wins over then No. 2 South Carolina, marking the highest series victory for Georgia since 2001, and over rival Georgia Tech. Georgia had six players selected in the MLB draft including first round lottery selection Robert Tyler by Colorado. In year two of the Stricklin era, the Bulldogs posted their first SEC road sweep since 2009 when it won three straight over Tennessee and then claimed its first league series at No. 7 South Carolina since 1994. In May, Georgia combined on a one-hit shutout of Georgia Tech at Turner Field in front of the largest crowd to see a college baseball regular season game as 18,792 attended the 13th annual Spring Baseball Classic For Kids.

Georgia battled through the 2015 season while missing two members of its starting rotation and two bullpen arms for a significant stretch. Still, the Bulldog staff posted a sub 4.00 ERA for only the second time since 1977. When at full strength, the bullpen was a formidable group, allowing just one earned run over the final 29.2 innings of 2015. Georgia had seven players selected in the 2015 MLB draft, which marked the most since 2011.

In Stricklin's first year at Georgia, he led the Bulldogs back to the SEC Tournament for the first time since 2012. Georgia compiled an 11-game wining streak during the season, and it captured a series over No. 7 South Carolina, the first over a top 10 team since 2011. Three Bulldogs signed professional contracts.

Stricklin, who led his alma mater Kent State to five NCAA Regionals and the 2012 College World Series, was named head baseball coach at the University of Georgia on June 3, 2013. During a nine-year stint with the Golden Flashes, he posted a 350-188 record, winning five Mid-American Conference regular season crowns and five MAC Tournament titles. Known for developing student-athletes on and off the field, 30 KSU players were selected in the Major League Baseball draft during his tenure, and from 2010-12, the team registered a perfect 1,000 score in the NCAA's Academic Performance Rate (APR) report. KSU was one of only 16 schools in the country to reach this academic accomplishment and the only public institution on the list. Also, the Golden Flashes were honored in Omaha in 2012 for having the highest team Grade Point Average (GPA) of all the eight participants at the College World Series (CWS), owning a 3.09 GPA.

Stricklin earned his first head coaching job in July of 2004 when he returned to Kent State following three seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Georgia Tech under former KSU head coach Danny Hall. Stricklin directed Kent State to its finest season in school history in 2012 as the Golden Flashes posted a record 47 victories including a 21-game winning streak and their first trip to the CWS. The Golden Flashes went on the road and won the NCAA Gary (Ind.) Regional and then upset No. 5 national seed Oregon in a Super Regional in Eugene. At the CWS, they eliminated top-ranked Florida and finished tied for fifth. KSU wound up with a final national ranking of No. 5, the highest ranking in team history.

Stricklin, a two-time All-Mid-American Conference catcher, handled pitching staffs that were ranked No. 1 and No. 2 in the nation in earned run average during his final two playing seasons at KSU. A 23rd round draft pick of the Minnesota Twins in 1993, he played five seasons of professional baseball and reached the Triple-A level with the Twins. Stricklin graduated magna cum laude with a bachelor's degree in marketing from Kent State in 1995. He and his wife Cheri have three children: daughters Sydney (18) and Keaton (13), and a son, Cale (16).

Associate head coach/recruiting coordinator Scott Daeley enters his eighth season with the University of Georgia baseball program. Daeley, 43, serves as Georgia's hitting coach, works with the outfielders and is the third base coach.

Georgia was poised to have another memorable season in 2020 when the campaign ended after 18 games due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Bulldogs finished the year ranked as high as No. 2 nationally with a 14-4 record. The Bulldogs were led at the plate by sophomore Ben Anderson (.414) and junior Tucker Bradley (.397-6-23). The team batted .279 with a .420 slugging percentage, 18 home runs and was 29-for-33 in stolen bases. Bradley and senior shortstop Cam Shepherd signed as free agents.

The Bulldogs posted one of their best regular seasons in school history in 2019, going 42-14 including a school record 21-9 in the Southeastern Conference. Then, Georgia advanced to the semifinals of the SEC Tournament and played host to another NCAA Regional as a top eight National Seed. This was the first time in school history that Georgia served as an NCAA host site as a National Seed in back-to-back seasons. Also, it was only the third time for the program to make back-to-back NCAA Regional appearances. Georgia finished the 2019 season with a 46-17 record, and the win total was the fourth most in school history while the 42 victories during the regular season was the second most. For the second straight year, the Bulldogs established a school record for Fielding Percentage (.980). Georgia hit 75 home runs including a school record eight grand slams.

Junior third baseman/closer Aaron Schunk, a second round draft pick of the Colorado Rockies, was named the 2019 John Olerud Award recipient as the nation's top two-way player by the College Baseball Foundation. Junior Cam Shepherd, a 20th round selection of the Tampa Bay Rays, received a Gold Glove for his play at shortstop from ABCA/Rawlings. Schunk and pitcher Emerson Hancock were consensus All-America selections to highlight the Bulldog individual honors from 2019. A total of eight Bulldogs were selected in the 2019 Major League Baseball Draft with six opting to turn professional and another signing a free agent contract. Also of note, Hancock and freshman pitcher Cole Wilcox garnered USA Collegiate National Team summer invitations.

The 2018 season marked Georgia's finest in a decade. The Bulldogs went 39-21 overall, 18-12 in the SEC, earned a No. 8 national seed for the NCAA Tournament, advanced to the NCAA Athens Regional Final and finished with a consensus top 25 ranking. Georgia's .282 batting average was its best since 2010, and the 64 home runs, including a school record seven grand slams, was the most since a record 109 in 2009. In August of 2018, Daeley was promoted to associate head coach/recruiting coordinator.

Two Bulldog hitters were 2018 MLB draft picks in ninth round selection Keegan McGovern (Seattle) and 16th rounder Michael Curry (San Diego). McGovern, a four-year starting outfielder, was a Third Team All-American while Curry, a three-year starter at DH/C/OF, made Second Team All-SEC. Schunk garnered Third Team All-America honors from the NCBWA as a utility player.

In Daeley's first season, Georgia's highlights included returning to the SEC Tournament for the first time since 2012 and two Bulldog hitters being selected in the Major League Baseball (MLB) draft. Shortstop Nelson Ward was a 12th round pick while outfielder/third baseman Hunter Cole was drafted in the 26th round. In 2015, the Bulldogs had two hitters sign professional contracts in catcher Zack Bowers and first baseman Jared Walsh. In 2019, Walsh made his Major League debut with the Los Angeles Angels. In 2016, Georgia returned to the SEC Tournament, and three hitters signed professional contracts highlighted by sixth round draft pick Stephen Wrenn.

In the area of recruiting, Daeley has steadily improved Georgia classes according to the Perfect Game USA national rankings, going from No. 26, to No. 22 and now No. 3 for the incoming class from 2017.

Daeley arrived at Georgia from Kent State in June of 2013 where he was a member of Scott Stricklin's staff for nine years. As the hitting coach at KSU, Daeley helped develop 30 All-Mid-American Conference position players, three MAC Players of the Year and six All-Americans. During Daeley's time as recruiting coordinator at KSU, the Golden Flashes assembled classes that excelled both on the field and in the classroom. He was a part of the KSU program that made five NCAA Regional appearances highlighted by the 2012 College World Series.

A total of 36 Flashes were selected in the Major League Baseball Draft from 2005-13 including 26 during his final five seasons at KSU. After the 2012 season that saw the Flashes reach the College World Series, Baseball America went back and re-ranked the recruiting classes from 2008 and ranked the Golden Flashes as having the ninth best class. The 2006 class was ranked by Baseball America as the No. 17 class in the country becoming the first Mid-American Conference program to be included in their recruiting Top 25.

Prior to going to Kent State, Daeley served as a volunteer assistant coach for two years at his alma mater Wake Forest. Daeley rejoined the Wake Forest baseball program in May 2002 after playing three years in the San Francisco Giants organization. Daeley played center field and batted leadoff for the Demon Deacons in 1998 and 1999 and was the catalyst for back-to-back Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament Championship teams. He earned second team All-ACC honors in 1999 with 27 doubles and 83 runs scored, the second most in a single season in Wake Forest baseball history.

A 31st round draft pick of the Giants following the 1999 season, Daeley played with Shreveport, San Jose and Salem-Keizer. Daeley came to Wake Forest from Cypress Junior College in California where he hit .350 and ranked among the school's all-time leaders with 98 runs scored and 43 stolen bases. He was named co-MVP of the 1997 junior college state championships.

A native of Orange, Calif., Daeley received a business degree from Wake Forest in December 2002. Scott and his wife, Alison, have two daughters, Sloan (12) and Paige (11).

Asst. Coach/Pitching Coach, Michigan, 2013-2017
Asst. Coach/Pitching Coach, Georgia, June 2017-present

Since being named the pitching coach on Scott Stricklin's University of Georgia staff on June 10, 2017, Sean Kenny has made a dramatic impact with the program. The 48-year-old begins his fourth year with the Bulldogs.

Georgia was poised to have another memorable season in 2020 when the campaign ended after 18 games due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Bulldogs finished the year ranked as high as No. 2 nationally with a 14-4 record. The pitching staff had a 2.52 ERA and held opponents to a .206 batting average. The team featured a pair of power arms in junior Emerson Hancock, who went sixth overall in the first round of the 2020 MLB Draft to Seattle, and Cole Wilcox, who went in the third round to San Diego. The duo combined to sign for $9 million. The top rnewcomers were Jonathan Cannon and Will Childers, and they earned Freshman All-America honors.

In 2019, the Bulldogs posted one of their best regular seasons in school history, going 42-14 including a school record 21-9 in the Southeastern Conference. Then, Georgia advanced to the semifinals of the SEC Tournament and played host to another NCAA Regional as a top eight National Seed. This was the first time in school history that Georgia served as an NCAA host site as a National Seed in back-to-back seasons. Also, it was only the third time for the program to make back-to-back NCAA Regionals.

Georgia finished the 2019 season with a 46-17 record, and the win total was the fourth most in school history while the 42 victories during the regular season was the second most. The pitching staff set school records for strikeouts in a season with 601 and an opponent's batting average of .200 that was the lowest in the Southeastern Conference. Also, the squad's 3.24 ERA was the second best in school history, trailing only the 1958 team mark of 2.97. Additionally, the team tallied 19 saves and allowed just 235 runs, both marks that ranked second best in school history.

Junior third baseman/closer Aaron Schunk, a second round draft pick of the Colorado Rockies, was named the 2019 John Olerud Award recipient as the nation's top two-way player by the College Baseball Foundation. Schunk and pitcher Emerson Hancock were consensus All-America selections to highlight the Bulldog individual honors. A total of eight Bulldogs were selected in the 2019 Major League Baseball Draft with six opting to turn professional and another signing a free agent contract. Pitcher Tony Locey, a third round pick of the St. Louis Cardinals, went 11-2 to become Georgia's first 11-game winner since 1990. Pitcher Tim Elliott, a fourth round pick of the Seattle Mariners, made the Academic All-District team from Google Cloud/CoSIDA while pitcher Zac Kristofak was taken in the 14th round by the Los Angeles Angels. Also of note, Hancock and freshman pitcher Cole Wilcox garnered USA Collegiate National Team summer invitations.

In his first year with the Bulldogs in 2018, Kenny's influence with the pitching staff helped Georgia post its finest season in a decade. Georgia went 39-21 overall, 18-12 in the SEC, earned a No. 8 National Seed for the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the NCAA Athens Regional Final. Georgia's team ERA of 3.97 was 1.05 runs lower compared to the 2017 squad, and the staff established a school record by holding opponents to a .236 batting average while tallying 532 strikeouts. Also, the Bulldogs' 18 saves ranked third best in school history.

The team leader in wins, junior Kevin Smith (8-1, 3.69 ERA), signed as a seventh round draft pick of the New York Mets. Schunk garnered Third Team All-America honors from the NCBWA as a utility player. He was one of three finalists for the John Olerud Award. Also, pitcher/outfielder C.J. Smith was named a Second Team Freshman All-American by the NCBWA.

A native of Ann Arbor, Mich., Kenny came to Georgia after five seasons at the University of Michigan where he served under the direction of Erik Bakich. The Wolverines finished the 2017 season with a 42-17 mark and earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Championships. The 2017 pitching staff led the Big Ten with a 3.46 Earned Run Average (ERA) and 562 strikeouts while limiting opponents to a .231 batting average. Pitchers Oliver Jaskie and Jackson Lamb were named to the All-Big-Ten first team while freshman reliever Tommy Henry made the conference All-Freshmen team.

In 2016, Michigan's pitching staff ranked first in the Big Ten in fewest hits allowed, second in strikeouts and featured three pitchers selected in the MLB Draft (Brett Adcock, 4th Round, Houston, Evan Hill, 24th Round, Detroit, and Jackson Lamb, 35th Round, St. Louis). The Wolverines ended the year 36-21 with a 3.86 team ERA. Kenny came to Michigan after spending three seasons with Bakich at the University of Maryland where he worked as the Terrapins' pitching coach. Overall, the Terrapins had eight players drafted including six pitchers during that three-year stretch.

Prior to going to Maryland, Kenny spent six seasons as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator at Pepperdine under Steve Rodriguez. He helped guide the Waves to five NCAA Regional appearances and three West Coast Conference (WCC) titles.

Before heading to Pepperdine, Kenny worked at the University of San Diego where he served as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator on Rich Hill's staff from 1999-2003. He helped USD to West Coast Conference titles in 2002 and 2003 and recruited the nation's 22nd-best class for 2004. One of his standout players was 2002 WCC Pitcher of the Year and third team All-American Ricky Barrett. A total of 12 Toreros including three pitchers were selected in the MLB draft during his stint at San Diego.

Kenny began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Saint Mary's College in Moraga, Calif., in 1997. He landed his first full-time coaching position at Laney Community College in Oakland, Calif., where he served as pitching coach in 1998.

The Kenny Family: Sean, Marissa and Ayden

Kenny is a graduate of Eastern Michigan where he earned All-Mid-American Conference honors as a pitcher for the Eagles. He was a 17th round selection of the New York Mets in the 1993 MLB draft and played three seasons of professional baseball. He earned a bachelor's degree in literature from EMU in the fall of 1997 and a master's in physical education from Saint Mary's in 2000.

Kenny and his wife Marissa have one son, Ayden (20).

Volunteer Coach, Georgia State, 2015-17
Volunteer Coach, Alabama, 2017-18
Assistant Coach, Georgia State, 2018-19
Volunteer Coach, Georgia, 2019-present

Atlanta native Brock Bennett begins his second season with the Georgia baseball program as the volunteer coach. He works with the catchers and infielders, serves as the first base coach, directs on-campus recruiting and assists in the coordination of camps.

Georgia was poised to have another memorable season in 2020 when the campaign ended after 18 games due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Bulldogs finished the year ranked as high as No. 2 nationally with a 14-4 record. His experience includes stops at Georgia State, Alabama and Georgia Perimeter College (GPC) following his playing career with the Crimson Tide.

Bennett began his coaching career by spending three years as an assistant at GPC under Brett Campbell and Jeremy Brotherton while helping the Jaguars win a pair of region titles. He coached the first-team all-conference catcher all three years, and four GPC players were drafted during his time there. Then, he was named the volunteer coach at Georgia State (GSU) on Greg Frady’s staff. He helped develop catcher Nick Gatewood, who went on the become an 11th-round draft pick of the San Diego Padres in the 2018 Major League Baseball Draft. Bennett had an opportunity to coach at his alma mater when he joined Brad Bohannon’s staff in 2017-18. He comes to Georgia after spending the 2019 season as an assistant coach at GSU. Bennett directed the Panther offense and worked with the infielders.

The Bennett Family: Brock, Ashley and Chandler

A graduate of Greater Atlanta Christian, Bennett was a catcher/infielder at Alabama (2007-11), where he posted a .314 career batting average while starting more than 100 games, including 97 starts behind the plate. He set a single season (21) and career mark for sacrifice bunts (28). As a senior, he batted .338 with 22 RBI and 39 runs scored plus a team-high .992 fielding percentage.

During his career, the Crimson Tide advanced to four straight NCAA Regionals including a Super Regional in 2010. He made the 2010 Southeastern Conference All-Tournament team, was named National Player of the Week by College Baseball 360 and garnered a spot on the Johnny Bench Award Watch List. He earned a degree in business management from Alabama. He was selected by the San Francisco Giants in the 33rd round of the 2011 Major League Baseball Draft.

Bennett is married to the former Ashley Skorcz. They have one son, Chandler (2).

Ryan GEARHEART

Strength & Conditioning
8th Season at UGA
(Middle Tennessee State ’09)

As an Assistant Director of Strength and Conditioning, Ryan Gearheart works with the baseball and softball programs. He is in his eighth season with the Bulldogs.

Before coming to Georgia, Gearheart spent time working at Ohio State, Eastern Michigan, and Kent State. He has worked with baseball since 2010 while serving in the role as a Graduate Assistant at Eastern Michigan. After his time at Eastern, Gearheart was hired by Coach Scott Stricklin at Kent State. In his first year, KSU earned its first appearance in the College World Series in school history. While at KSU, Gearheart also served as a nutritional specialist for multiple athletic teams. His work experience also includes a stint at D1 Sports Training in Nashville, Tenn., where he was a facility coordinator/head speed and strength coach.

A native of Columbia, Tenn., he earned a bachelor’s degree in Exercise Science from Middle Tennessee State in 2009 and a master’s degree in Sport Management from Eastern Michigan in 2013. He has certifications as a Strength and Conditioning Coach (SCCC), Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS), Level 1 Nutritionist (Pn1), USA Olympic Weight Lifting (USAW-SPL1), Speed and Explosion for Team Sports (NASE), and Functional Range Conditioning Mobility Specialist (FRCms).

During his time at UGA, Gearheart has trained athletes for and been a part of the 2014 national championship swimming and diving program, two softball College World Series appearances (2016 and 2018), and two baseball teams that have earned top eight national seeds.

Gearheart works with former UGA baseball and now professional baseball players helping them with their off-season training programs. He also serves as the Internship Director for the strength and conditioning department.

Gearheart is married to the former Paige Herring of Birmingham, Ala., who also works for UGA as an Assistant Athletic Trainer for the swimming and diving program.

They have two daughters, Peyton (4) and Taylor, born June 29, 2020.

Jeff GUY

Director of Baseball Operations
8th Season at UGA
(Lipscomb ’81)

Now entering his eighth year with the Georgia program, Jeff Guy serves as the director of baseball operations. He joined Scott Stricklin’s staff at Georgia on Aug. 1, 2013.

Guy has coached baseball in Georgia for 30 years at the high school and college levels. Also, he served as the Operations Manager for the non-profit East Cobb Baseball, Inc., located in Marietta. It is one of the premier youth baseball organizations in the country. ECB’s championship tradition has produced more than 180 national titles since its inception in 1985 with many of those players going on to have success at the collegiate and professional level.

Guy went in to coaching following a tremendous playing career at Lipscomb where he helped the Bisons win an NAIA National Championship. A native of Nashville, Tenn., Guy led the Bisons to four consecutive NAIA World Series appearances. In 2009, he was inducted in to the Lipscomb Athletics Hall of Fame.

From 1982-86, Guy served as head baseball coach at Forest Park High School, winning a state championship in 1985. He was named the Georgia High School Coach of the Year in 1985 and 1986. From 1986-1991, he directed the Lassiter High School program, compiling a 95-38 record. Following one year at Columbus College as an assistant coach, Guy was hired at Georgia Tech as a hitting coach. The Yellow Jackets led the ACC in batting in seven of the next eight seasons. In Guy’s first year in Atlanta, Tech finished as the national runner-up at the 1994 College World Series. In 2001, Guy was named the baseball operations manager at East Cobb Baseball where he has also coached for more than 20 years, helping win 25 national championships. Guy earned his bachelor’s degree in health and physical education in 1981 from Lipscomb and a master’s degree in health and physical education from West Georgia in 1989. He and his wife Kathleen have two children, Garrett (24) and Abigail (21).

Nelson WARD

Student Assistant Coach
2nd Season at UGA

Former Bulldog infielder Nelson Ward begins his second season as a student assistant coach following a six-year playing career in professional baseball. Ward assists Brock Bennett with the infielders.

A three-year starting infielder for Georgia from 2012-14, Ward played in 149 games and posted a career .301 batting average, 21 doubles, seven triples and 66 RBI.

A native of Marietta, he was a 12th round draft pick of the Seattle Mariners and played five seasons of professional baseball.

Ward is finishing a degree in human development and family science.

He is married to the former Emily Quam of Denton, Texas. She is a teacher in the Clarke County School system.

Home Runs For Hometown Rivals Special Olympics Baseball Game

Each year, the University of Georgia baseball team participates in various community service events. In eight of the past nine years, Bulldog student-athletes from various sports have staged a baseball game at Foley Field featuring Special Olympic players. The game was canceled in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The fundraiser benefits Athens-Clarke County Special Olympics. The event is billed as "Home Runs for Hometown Rivals" and features a game between special needs Clarke-County athletes from the Westside of Athens versus Eastside players. Sometimes rain forces the event indoors, but a good time is still had by all.

The unique event features pregame ceremonies, introductions and the student-athletes help the participants swing bats and run the bases. The event has raised more than $2,000 annually through ticket sales, concessions, donations and corporate sponsorships.

Four Bulldogs Part of 2021 L.E.A.D Class

Ben Anderson, Jonathan Cannon, Ryland Goede and Josh Stinson were among the UGA baseball players in the Class of 2020-21 inducted into UGA's Student-Athlete Leadership Academy. This marked the 11th year of the Leadership Education and Development (L.E.A.D.) program. Inductees are chosen based on academic and athletic success, leadership, campus and community service involvement, and recommendations of head coaches and academic counselors.

"The Leadership Academy provides an outstanding opportunity for a select group of our student-athletes to further their leadership journey," said then J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Greg McGarity. "These students are highly motivated and engaged in the total collegiate experience, and we are proud to have them represent UGA and the Athletic Association."

Record 26 Bulldogs Make SEC Baseball Academic Honor Roll

Georgia had 101 student-athletes named to the 2020 SEC Spring Academic Honor Roll. To qualify for the honor roll, student-athletes must maintain a 3.00 GPA and must have completed 24 semester hours of academic credit toward a degree and been a member of the varsity team for the sport's entire NCAA Championship segment. It is based on grades from 2019 Summer, 2019 Fall and 2020 Spring terms.

A total of 18 veteran members from the baseball team made the SEC Academic Honor Roll: Ben Anderson (Biochemistry & Molecular Biology), Tucker Bradley (Sport Management), Justin Glover (Finance), Jack Gowen (Consumer Economics), Emerson Hancock (Sport Management), Randon Jernigan (Sport Management), Riley King (Exercise & Sport Management), Mason Meadows (Management), Darryn Pasqua (Mechanical Engineering), Will Proctor (Film Studies), Chaney Rogers (Sport Management), Cam Shepherd (Sport Management), C.J. Smith (Management), Patrick Sullivan (Real Estate), Cole Tate (Sport Management), Connor Tate (Sport Management), Ryan Webb (Sport Management) and Cole Wilcox (Accounting).

Additionally, eight UGA student-athletes from the baseball team made the SEC First-Year Honor Roll in 2020: Jonathan Cannon (Management Information Systems), Will Childers (Sport Management), Charles Goldstein (Management), Ben Harris (Management Information Systems,), Spencer Keefe (Exercise & Sport Science), Bryce Melear (Consumer Economics, Evans, Ga.), Michael Polk (Risk Management & Insurance), and Josh Stinson (Mechanical Engineering).

Since 2004, the SEC has had a First-Year Academic Honor Roll for those freshman with a 3.0 GPA and at least 24 semester hours.

Dual-Threat Dawgs

In the modern era of Georgia Baseball, there have been a handful of two-way Bulldogs. In fact, 3B/Closer Aaron Schunk was honored as the 2019 John Olerud Award winner by the College Baseball Foundation as the nation’s top two-way player after being a finalist for the award in 2018.

One of the greatest dual-threat Bulldogs was All-American LHP/DH Derek Lilliquist. A first round draft pick of Atlanta in 1987 (6th overall), he spent eight years pitching in the Majors and then served as the pitching coach for the St. Louis Cardinals and Washington Nationals.

In 2021, Georgia will have sophomore Ben Harris and freshman Luke Wagner who will pitch and play in the outfield.

Here’s a look at a few of the two-way Bulldogs since Lilliquist who finished his Bulldog career with a .318 batting average, 35 home runs, 135 RBI plus went 31-12 with a 3.30 ERA in 316 innings pitched.

SUSTAINING A TRADITION OF ELITE DEFENSE

Under Ike Cousins Head Baseball Coach Scott Stricklin, the Bulldogs annually rank among the nation's top defensive teams. In fact, the top two marks in school history have come under Stricklin's watch.

In 2019, Georgia established a school record with a .980 fielding percentage. The previous best was .979 set by the 2019 club. The third best mark came in 2012 at .978.

THE JOHN OLERUD AWARD

The John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award is presented annually by the College Baseball Foundation. Olerud, who was inducted into the National College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2007, was a standout pitcher and first baseman at Washington State from 1987 through 1989. The first award was presented in 2010.

Georgia's Aaron Schunk was the 2019 recipient after being a finalist in 2018. He is the only Bulldog to win the award. In his Bulldog career (2017-19), he played in 154 games with 153 starts. A second round draft pick of the Colorado Rockies in 2019, he batted .339 with 15 home runs and 58 RBI as a junior plus tallied 12 saves to go with a 1-2 mark and 2.49 ERA in 17 appearances.

Schunk ranks among the top six prospects in the Rockies organization. He worked out at Colorado's Alternate Training site during the summer of 2020 following an All-Star debut with the Boise Hawks in 2019.

THE GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD

The Golden Spikes award is given annually to the top amateur baseball player in America. Eight former Bulldogs have been nominated for this prestigious honor including first round picks Emerson Hancock (2020), Gordon Beckham (left) and Joshua Fields in 2008 and second round pick Rich Poythress in 2009. Hancock was a semifinalist in 2019. Hancock and Cole Wilcox made the 2020 preseason watch list, however the award was not presented due to the COVID-19 pandemic canceling much of the season.

Beckham was a finalist for the award while Fields and Poythress were semi-finalists. In 1987, not only was it a banner year for the Bulldogs as a team, but also for some individuals. Pitchers Cris Carpenter and Derek Lilliquist were tabbed as nominees for the award. It marked only the second time that two teammates were nominated in the same year. In 1990 former Bulldog pitcher Dave Fleming, who led Georgia to its first-ever national championship, was nominated.

The winner is automatically enshrined in the United States Baseball Federation's Amateur Baseball Hall of Fame. His named is also added to the permanent Golden Spikes Award at the National Baseball Hall of Fame. In addition, the winner also becomes the USBF's nominee for the AAU's Sullivan Award, which goes to the nation's top amateur athlete.

University of Georgia student-athletes have a tremendous championship tradition to uphold. They carry the spirit and the pride for all students, alumni and supporters of UGA. The tradition of athletic and academic excellence at UGA is made possible by scholarships that provide these young people the opportunity to become successful, well-educated citizens, distinguished alumni and supporters of UGA.

A donor may endow a named scholarship for a UGA student-athlete with a gift of $200,000. Although the donor cannot select the specific scholarship recepients, he or she can designate his/her support to a specific sport.Currently, there are six baseball scholarship endowments.

For more information about the Athletic Scholarship Endowment Program, the Coaching Endowment program or other giving opportunities, please contact The Georgia Bulldog Club at (877) 423-2947.

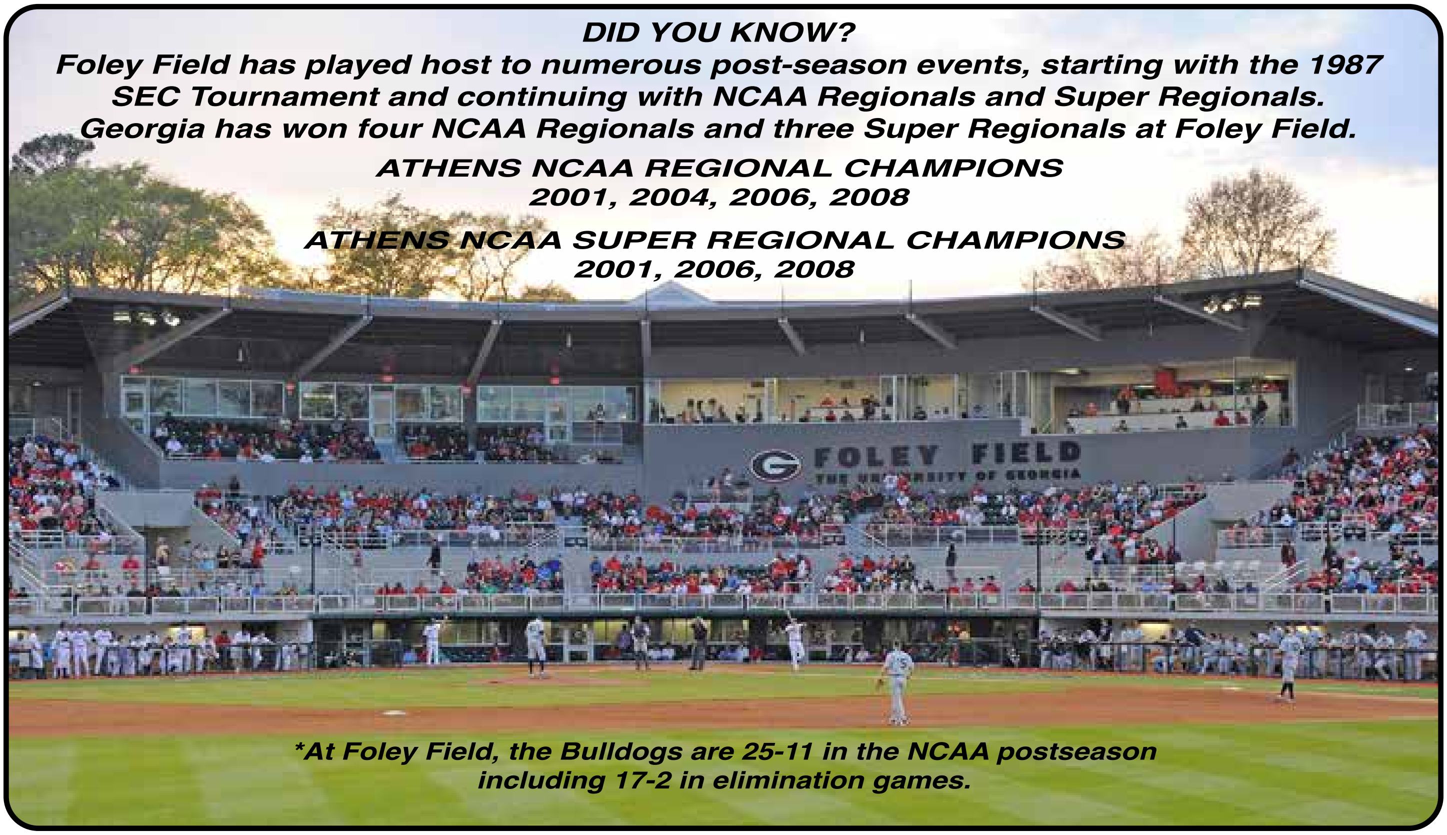
2021 opponents and all SEC teams in bold



DID YOU KNOW?

Foley Field has played host to numerous post-season events, starting with the 1987 SEC Tournament and continuing with NCAA Regionals and Super Regionals. Georgia has won four NCAA Regionals and three Super Regionals at Foley Field.

ATHENS NCAA REGIONAL CHAMPIONS
2001, 2004, 2006, 2008

ATHENS NCAA SUPER REGIONAL CHAMPIONS
2001, 2006, 2008

At Foley Field, the Bulldogs are 25-11 in the NCAA postseason including 17-2 in elimination games.

FOLEY FIELD
THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA
GEORGIA BULLDOGS

In honor of Athletic Director of Administration Reid Parker, Coach Dick Copas, and Faculty Athletic Representative Dr. Bill Powell, the right field fan area is dedicated to these three remarkable men who served the University of Georgia, the UGA Athletic Association and the Athens community for over 30 years. Never seeking personal credit or recognition, they represent all those who give unsung, lifelong service to UGA. They called themselves "The Garden Club" for their informal meetings.
The Garden Club Terrace serves as a unique location of enjoyment and beauty for all fans at Foley Field.

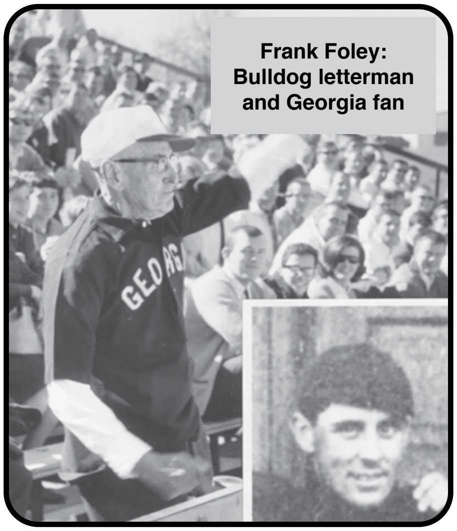
The Garden Club Terrace

A special dedication ceremony took place on April 2, 2016 in the right field fan area of Foley Field when it was officially named "The Garden Club Terrace." This honors former Athletic Director of Administration Reid Parker, former Bulldog golf coach Dick Copas, and former Faculty Athletic Representative Dr. Bill Powell.

This trio of remarkable men served the University of Georgia, the UGA Athletic Association, and the Athens community for more than 30 years. They called themselves "The Garden Club" for their informal meetings.A permanent plaque honoring the trio was unveiled that day (at right).

It is located by the right field fence and features Parker, Copas and Powell. Members of the Parker, Copas and Powell families, along with J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Greg McGarity were in attendance at the dedication ceremony. Then, they all cheered on the Bulldogs to a 12-4 win over No. 21 Alabama.



Frank Foley: Bulldog letterman and Georgia fan

Judge Frank Foley is considered one of Georgia's all-time greats for his contributions both on and off the field. Foley was a part of the 1908 Southern championship team that recorded a mark of 20-2.

He was a distinguished alumnus who is remembered by many as a kind and caring gentleman. His enthusiasm for the University of Georgia was second to none.

A $12 million project known as the "Foley Field Revival" was completed in January of 2015 and included a new locker room. The Foley family of Columbus, Ga. is synonymous with Georgia Baseball. They provided the lead gift which provided the foundation for this latest stadium renovation. On Opening Day of 2015, Frank D. Foley III (above middle) was recognized and received a Bulldog jersey from UGA President Jere W. Morehead and J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Greg McGarity.

Home of The Bulldogs

Foley Field has served as Georgia's home since 1966, and the stadium was constructed in 1990. The Foley family of Columbus is synonymous with Georgia baseball.

The large-scale measures of the 2015 revival included the following: Redesigning the stadium's main entrance, additional restrooms and concession areas, an expanded press box, club-level and field-level seating, improvements to the dugouts, Georgia's locker room and team lounge, training room and batting cages. In 2013, improvements to Foley Field included the right field area formerly known as "Kudzu Hill," (now the Garden Club Terrace), the installation of a new high-definition video scoreboard and new trees behind the outfield fence.

Foley Field has served as a memorable postseason advantage for the Bulldogs. Georgia is 25-11 in the NCAA postseason in Athens including 17-2 in elimination games.

Bulldog fans have witnessed Georgia clinch trips to the College World Series in 2001, 2006 and 2008. Also, the Bulldogs won an NCAA Regional at Foley Field in 2004 and eventually advanced to the CWS that year too.

Georgia did not field a team in 1944-45 due to World War II.*

Before Foley Field

The first home for Georgia baseball was Herty Field from 1886 until 1911. Then, it was Sanford Field (below) until 1943. Pond Lippett threw the first no-hitter at home in Georgia history, blanking Pittsburgh 6-0 in 1920. Fred Sale pitched a perfect game at Sanford Field in 1923, a 4-0 win over Virginia. It was the first perfect game in Bulldog history and one of only two to date.

After World War II, the Diamond Dogs played on a field with no name located on "Ag. Hill," where Stegeman Coliseum is today. When construction for the Coliseum began in 1962, Georgia moved to its freshman field, which is next to where the Butts-Mehre building is now. In 1966, Georgia moved to its current location, and two years later, it was named Foley Field. On May 5, 1990, a $3.5 million refurbished Foley Field was dedicated and the latest upgrades came in 2015.

COVID-19 Pandemic Ends Season After 18 Games, Bulldogs Finish No. 2

Pandemic Halts Potential Special Speason

The 2020 Bulldogs featured one of the deepest pitching staffs in the country, and coupled with a veteran lineup, Georgia was poised to have a special campaign.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, spring sports around the country ended in mid-March. The Bulldogs were on their way to Florida for a No. 1 versus No. 2 matchup with the Gators to open the SEC schedule.

The 2020 Bulldogs finished with a 14-4 record, and the final USA TODAY Sports Top 25 poll of the season placed Georgia in the No. 2 spot. Georgia ended a season at No. 2 for the first time since the 2008 squad was a consensus No. 2 after advancing to the CWS Finals. There's only been one Bulldog squad to do better, the 1990 national champions.

2020 Highlights

*During the fall,Georgia teamed up with Vs. Cancer in a fundraising campaign to support child life programs at Children's Healthcare of Atlanta and for Pediatric Brain Cancer research. Then, their "Star" Nicholas Chaclan and his family were recognized before the Santa Clara doubleheader on Feb. 22, and the Bulldogs presented a $10,000 check to the Vs. Cancer organization. Also, the team wore gold shoelaces in their cleats as it's the signature color for childhood cancer to bring awareness to the disease.

*For the first time in school history, Georgia sold out its season tickets. Georgia's 11-1 start was the best by the Bulldogs since 2009 when they began the year 14-0.

Emerson Hancock (RHP), a consensus preseason All-America pick, along with Riley King (2B) were 2020 SEC Coaches Preseason All-SEC selections. Cole Wilcox (RHP) was named to the Baseball America preseason All-America Third Team. Hancock and Wilcox were among the players on the watch list for USA Baseball's Golden Spikes Award.

*From Feb. 28-March 1, Georgia swept No. 17 Ga. Tech, winning 6-5 in Athens, 12-0 in Atlanta and 9-3 at Coolray Field, the Triple-A home of the Gwinnett Stripers. Proceeds of the final game went to Children's Healthcare of Atlanta (CHOA) as this was the 18th annual Farmview Market Spring Baseball Classic For Kids. All three games were sellouts. This was the first three-game consecutive weekend series during the regular season with Tech in 59 years.

Memorable Performances

*Junior RHP Emerson Hancock (2-0, 3.75 ERA) matched his career high with 12 strikeouts and no walks in just 7.1 innings of a combined shutout of UMASS in what turned out to be his final start as a Bulldog. He became only the fourth student-athlete in the history of UGA to earn First Team Academic All-America honors and be a First Round draft pick in his sport.

*Sophomore RHP Cole Wilcox (3-0, 1.57 ERA) was dominating in 2020 with 32 strikeouts and just two walks in 23 innings over a span of four starts. Wilcox's 1.57 ERA ranks third in school history for a season and is the best since 1966 (Tom Jordan, 1.57). He earned 2nd Team All-America honors by Collegiate Baseball and received the highest bonus in MLB Draft history for a third round pick, a reported $3.3 million.

*Junior OF/LHP Tucker Bradley (.397-6-23; 0-0, 0.00, 1 SV, 4.1 IP, 6K) enjoyed one of the finest starts. He ranked among the SEC leaders in multiple categories. He reached base safely in all 18 games. Also, he picked up one save with six strikeouts and one walk. Senior SS Cam Shepherd tallied 21 RBI, four home runs and was 7-for-7 in stolen bases, all which ranked second on the squad to Bradley.

*On March 2, Tucker Bradley and Cole Wilcox were named SEC Player and Co-Pitcher of the Week. They were instrumental in Georgia sweeping No. 17 Georgia Tech for the third time in the past four years.

Bradley batted .412 (7-for-17) with eight runs scored, three home runs and nine RBI. Wilcox was brilliant in clinching the series over Tech in Atlanta, firing seven shutout innings and had a career-high 11 strikeouts. He allowed just three hits with no walks. Wilcox, along with senior Justin Glover who took care of the final two frames, led Georgia to its first shutout on Tech's campus since 1964.

*Sophomore CF Ben Anderson, who earned CoSIDA Academic All-District honors, led the team with a .414 average, 24 runs scored and ended the season on a 17-game on base streak. He became the first Bulldog since Gordon Beckham (.411) in 2008 to finish a season with a batting average over .400, and it's the highest mark since Buck Belue's .447 average in 1982. Junior INF Cole Tate (.339-2-14) had a stretch where he batted .615 (8-for-13) with a pair of doubles, a home run and eight RBI. Tate provided the game-winner on Opening Day over Richmond.

*Junior Ryan Webb was on the watch list for the NCBWA Stopper of the Year, which goes to the nation's top relief pitcher. Webb (2-0, 1.20 ERA, 1 SV) posted 26 strikeouts and five walks in 15 innings.

*Freshman Jonathan Cannon (3-0, 0.00 ERA) picked up three wins in five relief appearances. He did not allow a run in 11.1 innings with 12 strikeouts and two walks. Cannon's final victory came at Coolray Field on March 1st, tossing 4.2 scoreless innings with five strikeouts to complete a sweep of No. 17 Ga. Tech. Freshman Will Childers enjoyed a nice start to his career, going 1-0 with a 0.79 ERA in five appearances covering 11.1 innings with 13 strikeouts.

Cannon and Childers were named Freshman All-Americans by Collegiate Baseball.

Bulldogs In The MLB Draft

Due to the pandemic, Major League Baseball shortened the draft to just five rounds. Emerson Hancock was a first round pick (sixth overall), going to Seattle. He was the highest Bulldog draft pick since 1987 (Derek Lilliquist, No. 6 to Atlanta). Cole Wilcox went in the 3rd round to San Diego.

Tucker Bradley (Kansas City) and Cam Shepherd (Atlanta) signed as free agents. The Bulldogs extended their string to 48 straight seasons with at least one player signing a contract as all four of the aofrementioned Bulldogs began their professional career.

Record 26 Bulldogs Earn Academic Honors

A total of 18 Bulldogs earned a spot on the SEC Academic Spring Honor Roll and eight made the SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll to give Georgia a school record 26 baseball honorees.

These Bulldogs were: Ben Anderson, Tucker Bradley, Jonathan Cannon, Will Childers, Justin Glover, Charles Goldstein, Jack Gowen, Emerson Hancock, Ben Harris, Randon Jernigan, Spencer Keefe, Riley King, Mason Meadows, Bryce Melear, Darryn Pasqua, Michael Polk, Will Proctor, Chaney Rogers, Cam Shepherd, C.J. Smith, Josh Stinson, Patrick Sullivan, Cole Tate, Connor Tate , Ryan Webb and Cole Wilcox.

Also, Georgia was the only SEC baseball team to receive NCAA APR Recognition for outstanding achievement. Ten Bulldogs earned a degree, and the team posted a record 3.14 GPA for the spring semester.

Team Captains And Scholar-Athlete

The Jim Whatley Captain Awards went to senior Cam Shepherd (SS) and juniors Emerson Hancock (RHP) and Riley King (INF/OF) as they served as the team captains.

The Scholar-Athlete Award for the player with the highest GPA and best year was earned by pitcher Cole Wilcox (3.67 GPA in Accounting).

With the shortened season, Georgia did not name any other individual award winners. Most national awards and All-America teams were not chosen either.

Note: In 1987, Georgia finished the regular season with the best SEC mark at 18-8 but the SEC title went to league tournament winner Miss. State. MSU went 4-0 in the tournament after going 13-13 during the year. Starting in 1988, the SEC title went to the regular season champion and the tournament winner received the league's automatic NCAA bid.

Note: Georgia has won five SEC Eastern Division titles (1955, 1975, 2001, 2004 and 2008). The SEC Championship format has varied since the incepetion of the league in 1933. Some years, the SEC has had divisions. In 1977, the league began holding an SEC Tournament following the regular season.

THIS IS SEC BASEBALL

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 87-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition in baseball of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the 2020 college baseball season was canceled right before the SEC schedule was slated to start. In fact, the SEC Opening Weekend would've featured No. 2 Georgia at No. 1 Florida. In fact, 11 SEC teams finished the 2020 season ranked in the top 25 of the various polls.

The pandemic caused the 2020 MLB Draft to be shortened to five rounds (down from 40) plus the minor league season was canceled too. Still, the SEC had nine players selected in the first round including four of the top six: Arkansas' Heston Kjerstad (No. 2-Baltimore), Texas A&M's Asa Lacy (No. 4-Kansas City), Vanderbilt's Austin Martin (No. 5-Toronto) and Georgia's Emerson Hancock (No. 6-Seattle). Also of note, Tennessee's Garrett Crochet (No. 11-Chicago White Sox) became the first player in the 2020 class to be called up to the Majors in the same year he was drafted since 2014 (Brandon Finnegan-TCU). With no minor league season, Crochet became the first player to go straight to the Majors since 2010 (Mike Leake-Arizona State).

The SEC has now had a first round MLB selection each year since 1991 and 139 total in the first round during that time.

In 2019, the SEC posted another tremendous season with four teams advancing to the College World Series (CWS) and Vanderbilt winning the title. An SEC squad has appeared in the CWS 34 of the last 35 years when it was held as it was canceled in 2020 due to the pandemic.

An SEC team has made the CWS Championship series annually from 2008-2015 along with 2017-2019. Six SEC players were selected in the first round of the 2019 MLB Draft.

Vanderbilt claimed the 2019 SEC regular-season title after going 23-7 in league action. Also, the Commodores won the 2019 SEC Tournament title over Ole Miss in Hoover as the six-day event drew a record 162,669 fans.

Did You Know?

- Georgia won the first baseball national title for the SEC in 1990 while LSU has collected six crowns since then (1991, '93, '96, 1997, 2000, '09), South Carolina (2010, '11) and Vanderbilt (2014, '19) have two and Florida (2017) has one.
- There have been nine runner-up finishes: Georgia (2008), Florida (2011), South Carolina (2012), Miss. State (2013), Vanderbilt (2015), LSU (2017) and Arkansas (2018).

The SEC Player of the Year began in 1993; the others followed: SEC Pitcher of the Year (2003), SEC Freshman of the Year (2000) and SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year (2004).

In 2008, Georgia became the first school in SEC history to sweep the SEC Player of the Year, Pitcher of the Year, Scholar Athlete of the Year and Coach of the Year awards. Gordon Beckham won the Player and Scholar Athlete awards while Joshua Fields was named the league's top pitcher and David Perno was the Coach of the Year.

SEC ACADEMIC HONORS

SEC ACADEMIC HONOR ROLL (1984-2020)

In 1984, the SEC developed the Academic Baseball Honor Roll to recognize those athletes who had a 3.0 grade point average (either cumulative or during the past year), and had 24 semester or 26 quarter hours countable toward a degree. Prior to the 1996-97 season, the SEC dropped the requirement of earning a letter for that season. Starting in 2002, the recipients were chosen from the previous calendar year. A total of 139 Bulldogs have been honored 248 times.

Academic All-SEC (1971-83)

The Academic All-SEC team was developed to recognize the outstanding athletes who are also outstanding students. To be eligible, a student-athlete must: 1) have a 3.0 grade point average for either the past year or for their career; 2) be a sophomore or higher in academic classification; and 3) have 24 semester hours countable toward a degree. There were 19 Bulldogs honored 24 times during this period.

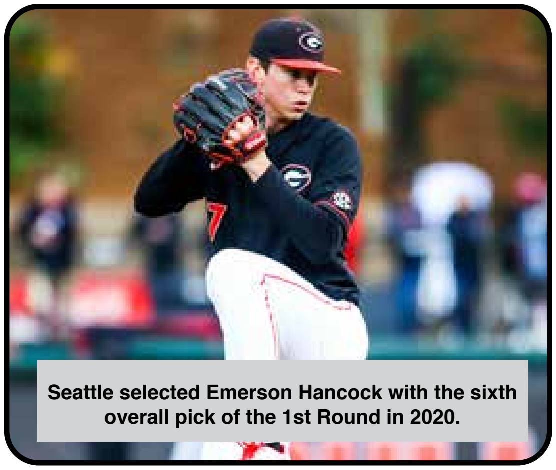
BULLDOG DRAFT FAST FACTS

The Bulldogs have a string of 48 straight seasons with at least one player signing a professional contract. The 2020 MLB Draft featured just five rounds, and two Bulldogs were selected and two more signed as free agents. UGA led the nation in 2009 with a school record 11 players selected. Georgia has had 11 first-rounders in school history:

1976: Larry Littleton, OF (Secondary phase/6th overall by Pittsburgh)
1980: Jeff Pyburn, OF (5th overall by San Diego)
1987: Derek Lilliquist, LHP (6th overall by Atlanta)
1987: Cris Carpenter, RHP (14th overall by St. Louis)
1992: Kendall Rhine, RHP (37th overall by Houston)
2006: Brooks Brown, RHP (34th overall by Arizona)
2008: Gordon Beckham, SS (8th overall by Chicago)
2008: Joshua Fields, RHP (20th overall by Seattle), Also in December of 2012, Fields went first overall in the Rule 5 draft to the Houston Astros.
2011: Zach Cone, OF (37th overall by Texas)
2016: Robert Tyler, RHP (38th overall, Competitive Balance Lottery Round A by Colorado)
2020: Emerson Hancock, RHP (6th overall, Seattle)



Seattle selected Emerson Hancock with the sixth overall pick of the 1st Round in 2020.

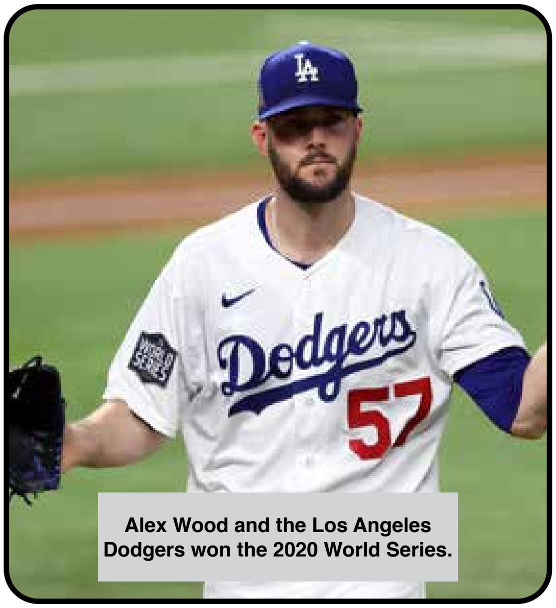
BULLDOG MAJOR LEAGUERS

A total of 39 former Bulldogs have reached the Major League level. It began with Claud Derrick for the Philadelphia Athletics in 1909 and continued in 2020 with Kyle Farmer, Justin Grimm, Jared Walsh and Alex Wood. Walsh was the latest Bulldog to make his debut, getting the promotion in May of 2019. Also of note, there have been six UGA students who never lettered for Georgia but went on to become major league ballplayers: Bill Calhoun (1913), Hal Epps (1938, '40, '43-44), Jack Fisher (1959-69), Ralph Head (1923), Tully Sparks (1897, '99-1910) and Jon Warden (1968).

Looking back in MLB history, Derrick played on Connie Mack's World Championship teams in 1910 and 1911 and, while recovering from a broken ankle in Baltimore in 1912, he was the first roommate of a rookie pitcher named George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Nolen Richardson, a Georgia standout in football and basketball in the 1920s, played six years in the majors and returned to coach the Bulldogs in 1951. Johnny Rucker was featured in LIFE as a promising rookie in 1940.

While many Bulldogs enjoyed success throughout their career, one who stands out is Spurgeon "Spud" Chandler. Chandler was a part of seven World Series teams for the New York Yankees, including winners of six championships. Actually, he first played in Yankee Stadium as a member of the Bulldog football team. Georgia defeated New York University 7-6 on Nov. 7, 1931. Following his graduation in 1932, the Carnesville, Ga., native spent five years in the minors before returning to Yankee Stadium as a major leaguer. In his 11-year career, his finest season came in 1943. He led the league in Wins, Earned Run Average and Complete Games, going 20-4 with a 1.64 ERA and 20 complete games. He went 2-0 with a 0.50 ERA in the 1943 World Series, winning game one and pitching a shutout in the clinching game five over St. Louis. Wood was part of the 2020 World Series Champion Los Angeles Dodgers.



Alex Wood and the Los Angeles Dodgers won the 2020 World Series.

MLB TRIVIA: Larry Littleton and former St. Louis Cardinal outfielder Michael Potter hold the MLB record for most career at bats by a non-pitcher without a hit. Littleton made the Indians 1981 team out of spring training. He made his debut in game two that season, pinch-hitting in the ninth inning. He grounded out to eventual Hall of Famer Robin Yount. His lone RBI came on a bases-loaded line out off Minnesota's Jerry Koosman that Mickey Hatcher ran down. Most of his at-bats came as a pinch-hitter, and he started just four games over a 45-day span.

Academic All-Americans
(voted on by *CoSIDA)

To be eligible to become a member of the Academic All-America team, a college scholar-athlete must be nominated by his sports information director, hold a minimum of 3.3 cumulative GPA on a 4.0 scale, be a starter or key reserve on the varsity and reached sophomore athletic and academic standing.

There are eight geographic districts across the country. Scholar-athletes must be first named to the All-District team and then they will be placed on the national ballot for consideration to determine the national Academic All-America Team.

GEORGIA MVP RECIPIENTS

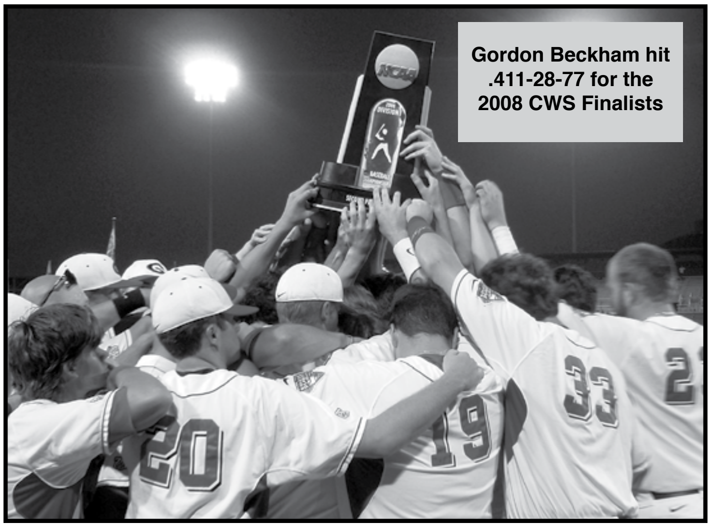
GORDON BECKHAM MVP AWARD

Starting in 2014, the annual Most Valulable Player (MVP) Award was named in honor of one of UGA's greatest players, All-American Gordon Beckham. He earned Southeastern Conference Player of the Year as well as SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors in his career.

"Gordon possesses all the qualities a program is looking for in their most valuable player, and he continues to represent Georgia in a first class manner as a professional in the Major Leagues," said Ike Cousins Head Baseball Coach Scott Stricklin. "It's a tribute to how he valued the importance of excelling in the classroom and on the field as a Georgia Bulldog."

Beckham arrived at UGA in 2006 as an undrafted infielder and went on to establish himself as one of the best ever to wear the red and black. He was tabbed an All-American and an Academic All-American. He started all 197 games of his three-year career, leading Georgia to a pair of College World Series appearances including the 2008 CWS Finals. He was a first round draft pick of the Chicago White Sox in 2008, made his MLB debut less then a year later and was named the 2009 American League Rookie of the Year by the MLB Players Association and The Sporting News.

2019 Gordon Beckham MVP winner Aaron Schunk claimed the team's Triple Crown at .339-15-58 plus served as the closer with 12 saves.



Gordon Beckham hit .411-28-77 for the 2008 CWS Finalists

USA BASEBALL TEAM

USA Baseball, based in Cary, N.C., is the national governing body of amateur baseball in the United States and a member of the United States Olympic Committee (USOC).

The organization selects, trains, and supports the USA Baseball Team and a Junior Team which participates in international competitions, including the Olympic Games and World Championships.

While the first official exhibition baseball game in the Olympics was a 1912 contest in Stockholm, Sweden, reports exist that an unrecognized baseball game was played at the 1904 Games in St. Louis, Mo. A number of single game exhibitions were also played at the 1936, 1952, 1956, and 1964 Olympic Games. The 1992 Games in Barcelona was the debut of baseball as a medal sport.

OLYMPIC TEAM

1936 Henry Wagnon, C (Bostwick, Ga.)

Wagnon was one of 22 delegates to the International Sports Congress whose members demonstrated American Games to other nations in Berlin. Although other countries had planned to send teams for the baseball tournament, none did. So, the USA squad split into two teams and played a night game before a world-record crowd reported to be over 125,000. The World Amateurs defeated the USA Olympics 6-5.

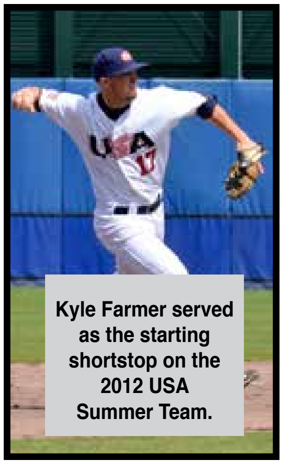
COLLEGIATE NATIONAL TEAM (Summer)

1987 Cris Carpenter, RHP (Gainesville, Ga.)
(1.37 ERA, 5 SV, 59.1 IP, 69 Ks, USA Record 32 games pitched)
Team: 34-9, Silver Medal in Pan Am Games and Intercon. Cup

1989 Dave Fleming, LHP (Mahopac, N.Y.)
(*6-3, 6.32 ERA, 14 games, 8 starts), *TPosted a team-high 6 wins.
Team: 27-17, 6th in Intercontinental Cup (1-5)

1994 Brian Powell, RHP (Bainbridge, Ga.)
(2-2, 4.76 ERA, 9 games, 7 starts)
Opening Night Starter, beat Nicaragua 7-4 in Millington, Tenn.
Team: 24-13, 4-4 in World Championships, 6th Place

2002 Clint Sammons, C (Stone Mountain, Ga.)
(8 games, 5 starts before hit by a pitch in a game that broke his wrist and ended his tour. Perfect fielding percentage with 63 putouts, 11 assists, threw out 33% of runners, two pickoffs, batted .100-0-2 in 20 at bats);
Team: 23-7, 2nd at FISU World Championships

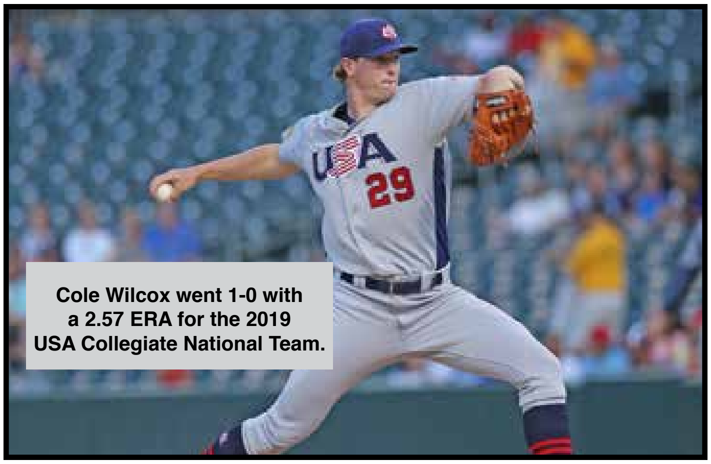


Kyle Farmer served as the starting shortstop on the 2012 USA Summer Team.

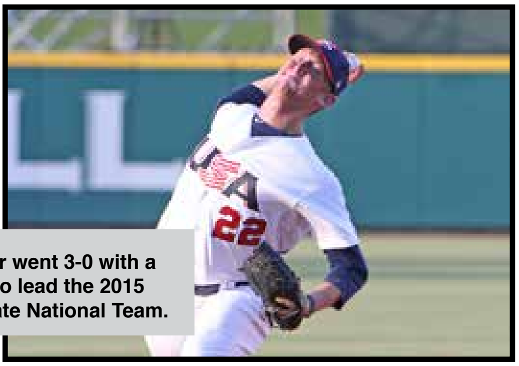
2012 Kyle Farmer, SS (Atlanta, Ga.)
(17 games, .250 with five doubles, eight RBI and a .967 FLDG.%)
Starting shortstop helped team go 12-5 and a bronze medal in the Netherlands. Four of team's five losses came to Cuba that had 12 World Baseball Classic veterans. Farmer had 3 RBI during medal round of the tournament. The team went 2-3 against Cuba in Havana and was the first U.S. squad to travel there in 16 years.

2015 Robert Tyler, RHP
(Cordele, Ga.)
(3-0, 1.00 ERA, 3 games, 2 starts)
Led Team USA with 3-0 record. Won both starts including Opening Day and the clinching-victory over Cuba in front of a sellout crowd of 10,352 fans in Charlotte at BB&T Ballpark as team went 9-8 overall.

2019 Cole Wilcox, RHP (Chickamauga, Ga.)
(1-0, 2.57 ERA, 4 games, 1 start)
Pitched three scoreless innings for a win over Cuba..Tossed 2.2 scoreless innings as part of a combined one-hit shutout versus Japan...Held opponents to a .217 batting average...Team went 8-6 overall with series wins over Chinese Taipei and Cuba.



Cole Wilcox went 1-0 with a 2.57 ERA for the 2019 USA Collegiate National Team.



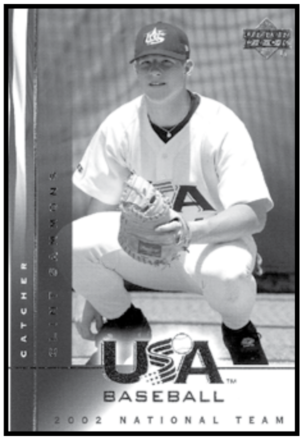
Robert Tyler went 3-0 with a 1.00 ERA to lead the 2015 USA Collegiate National Team.

2015 Team USA Flashback

Tyler Helps USA Clinch Series Over Cuba

A July 4th start against Cuba in front of a sellout crowd at BB&T Ballpark in Charlotte, Tyler pitched four scoreless innings in an 11-1 series-clinching victory in front of 10,352 fans. It matched the largest win over Cuba in national team history. He allowed only a two-out double in his final inning of work.

Georgia pitcher Brian Powell was a member of the 1994 USA squad that had six SEC players.



Clint Sammons was part of the 2002 USA Team.

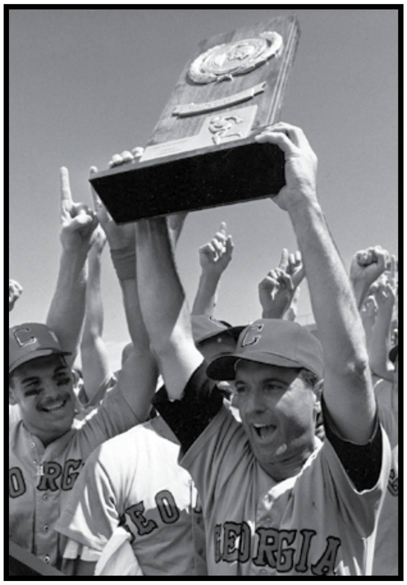
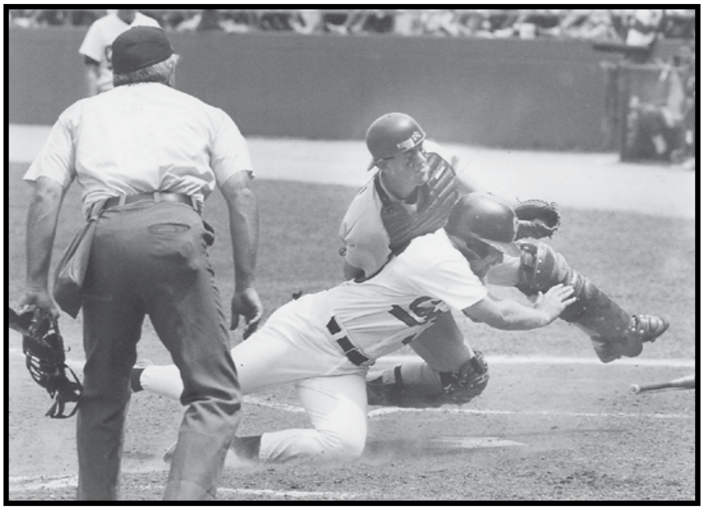
1990 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

The 1990 season will long be remembered as the finest ever produced at Georgia.

Catcher Terry Childers' play in the seventh preserved a 2-1 lead as Stan Payne and Dave Fleming combined to lead the Bulldogs to the national title.

Georgia was invited to Washington D.C., to discuss the strategy they used with President George Bush, a baseball letterman in his collegiate days at Yale.





Steve Webber compiled a 500-403-1 record in 16 seasons (1981-96) as the head coach at Georgia. He led the Bulldogs to two College World Series appearances (1987, '90), including a national championship in 1990. After his Georgia coaching career, Webber has served as a pitching coach in the following organizations: New York Yankees, San Diego Padres, Houston Astros and Atlanta Braves. He was inducted into UGA's Circle of Honor in 2018.

Pitchers (2): Dave Fleming and Mike Rebhan, Georgia; Catcher: Michael Daniel, Okla. State; First Base: Doug Radziewicz, Georgia;
Second Base: Troy Paulsen, Stanford; Shortstop: Brad Beanblossom, Okla. State;
Third Base: Bobby Carlsen, Okla. State; Outfield (3): Jeffrey Hammonds, Stanford, Tim Clark, LSU, Jason Rychlick, Citadel; Designated Hitter: Lyle Mouton, LSU;
+1990 CWS MVP: Mike Rebhan, Georgia

+CWS Note: In 1996, the CWS celebrated its 50th anniversary. All-Decade teams were selected by a panel and Rebhan made it for the 1990s. In the series, he beat Stanford's Mike Mussina twice, going 2-0 with a 1.00 ERA and two complete games.

25th Year Anniversary Of The 1990 National Champions

A total of more than 20 members of the 1990 national championship team returned to Foley Field in 2015 to highlight Lettermen's Day. Head coach Steve Webber threw out the first pitch to catcher Terry Childers while shortstop J.R. Showalter received one of the Distinguished Letterman's Award for Outstanding Athletic Achievement.

RAWLINGS GOLD GLOVE AWARD
2007 WINNERS
NCAA DIVISION I

2007: Jonathan Wyatt, OF
2008: Rich Poythress, 1B
2019: Cam Shepherd, SS

Beginning in 2007, the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) along with Rawlings Sporting Goods began a program where Rawlings Gold Glove Awards were presented to NCAA Division I players. Nomination and voting criteria are the same as the ABCA Rawlings All-Region and All-American Awards, which are collegiate baseball's oldest selections, dating back to 1949. The players and their schools each receive a Rawlings Gold Glove Award.

Georgia outfielder Jonathan Wyatt was one of the nine inaugural recipients in 2007. He led all SEC outfielders with a perfect 1.000 Fielding Percentage in 164 total chances in his final season with the Bulldogs. He was a 13th-round pick of the Chicago Cubs.

Rich Poythress received national recognition for his stellar play at first base for the SEC champion Bulldogs in 2008, earning a Gold Glove Award. He recorded a .995 fielding percentage in 69 starts with a school record 55 assists to go with 535 putouts in helping the team reach the College World Series Finals. Poythress finished his career with a .993 Fielding Percentage (1323 PO, 127 A, 10 E). He was a second round pick of the Seattle Mariners in 2009.

Cam Shepherd earned a Gold Glove in 2019 after setting a school record with a .987 fielding percentage at shortstop. Shepherd became the first shortstop on the All-SEC Defensive Team to go the entire league schedule without an error. He has started every game at shortstop the past three seasons (2017-19), a span of 180 games. A 20th round pick of the Tampa Bay Rays in 2019, he opted to return for his senior year.

THE BERT KIZER AWARD

The Bert Kizer Award is named annually to the Georgia baseball letterman, who in his first year, displayed exemplory achievement in the combined areas of academics, athletics and citizenship.

The award was established during the 1991 season. Bert Kizer was a loyal Georgia Baseball supporter for a number of years. In fact, his two sons, Bubba and Craig, both lettered for the Bulldogs. Bubba was an All-America infielder who recorded a career .346 batting average from 1976-78. Craig lettered in 1981-82 and posted a career pitching record of 6-2.

JIM UMBRICHT AWARD

The Jim Umbricht Award is given annually to the Georgia player considered the "most competitive" by the Bulldog coaching staff. The award is sponsored by former Georgia player Johnny Clifton (1951-53) of Atlanta.

Jim Umbricht was a two-sport great at the University of Georgia in the early 1950s. In 1952, he was named captain of both the Bulldog baseball and basketball teams, playing shortstop and guard, respectively. From Georgia, he went on to a successful professional baseball career. He spent time with the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Houston Colt .45s. He was part of the Pirates World Series Championship team in 1960. In 1963, he was named Major League Baseball's Comeback Player-of-the-Year. He died in 1964 at the age of 33 after a bout with cancer.

MORTON HODGSON: One of the Best Ever

Morton Hodgson (1906-09) not only was a starter for four years in baseball, he lettered in football, basketball and track. He was Georgia's first four-letter athlete. A hometown hero, he hit .333 on the 1908 championship squad that was considered one of the greatest teams ever fielded by the University. The pitching staff was so strong it shut out 12 opponents, six in succession. He was named to Grantland Rice's All-Southern team.

His sons were stellar athletes for the Bulldogs and two of his grandsons lettered in football under Coach Vince Dooley. He is the only Georgia player to have a son and two grandsons letter in football at Georgia.

The 1975 Team: In Big Jim Whatley's "swan song" as the Bulldog baseball coach, Georgia captured the SEC Eastern Division title. The players included senior captain Phil Baker, All SEC outfielders Larry Littleton and Bubba Wilson and one of the top hitters in the SEC in Ted Dieter. On the mound, these Bulldogs were led by All-SEC hurlers Bill Ivie and Mickey Register along with Mike Keepers and Wayne LaHullier.

BULLDOG LORE

NATIONAL BASEBALL
HALL OF FAME

While C.E. Morris served as the coach for Georgia's first team in 1886, Hughie Jennings is credited with being the Bulldogs' first official coach. He played for 17 years in the Major Leagues while also managing the Detroit Tigers from 1907-20. He was the second shortstop and among the first 35 men elected to the Hall of Fame. Former Bulldog Claude Derrick began his career with the Philadelphia Athletics in 1909 and played on two World Championship teams in 1910 and 1911. In 1912 with Baltimore, Derrick was the first roommate of rookie George Herman Ruth, better known as "The Babe."

Ike Cousins Head Baseball Coach Scott Stricklin begins the 2021 season with 553 career wins.

WEBBER JOINS CIRCLE OF HONOR IN 2018

The Circle of Honor is the UGA Athletic Association's all sports recognition program which is designed to pay tribute to extraordinary University of Georgia student-athletes and coaches who by their performance and conduct have brought honor to the university and themselves, and who by their actions have contributed to the tradition of the Georgia Bulldogs. The criteria for selection also stipulate that each recipient has earned his or her academic degree.

Steve Webber, who is the winningest baseball coach in Georgia history with 500 victories between 1981 and 1996, was part of the Circle of Honor Class of 2018. He led Georgia to its first two College World Series appearances including winning the 1990 national championship, the first for the Southeastern Conference in the sport.

At the time of his induction, the native Iowan and graduate of Southern Illinois University, was just the fifth among all 79 inductees that are not UGA alumni.

A Legacy Of Strength

Bulldog standouts Chance Veazey and Johnathan Taylor were honored before the win over South Carolina on March 24, 2018, and a unique permanent display on the Foley Field concourse was unveiled celebrating "A Legacy of Strength."

Both of their baseball careers were cut short by life-altering accidents at UGA. Their ability to persevere serves an inspiration to all those who know them and their stories. Both graduated in 2013 and live and work in their Georgia hometowns: Veazey in Tifton and Taylor in Acworth. The display features augmented reality and its own app that fans can download on their mobile device titled "A Legacy of Strength."

Once you download the app, open it and point your camera at the display, then watch at both the story being told and the technology that makes what you're seeing possible.

In December of 2013, Bulldogs Johnathan Taylor, Brett DeLoach and Chance Veazey earned their degrees from UGA.

The Taylor and Veazey families along with several of their teammates, athletic trainer Mike Dillon and their head coach David Perno returned to UGA and Foley Field to honor Chance and JT in 2018.
